

Foster & Adoptive Care Coalition

FOR EVERY CHILD... A PLACE TO CALL HOME

Media Representation - Help the Coalition be your voice!

Foster and Adoptive Care Coalition is often talking to the media about foster and adoptive care issues, or is called upon by the media to comment on foster/adoptive issues in the news. We also need parents' voice when educating our legislators. In order to educate the public, the Coalition keeps a database of foster and adoptive parents who are willing to talk to the media and share their personal experiences. Your participation will help make an impact on creating new policies that benefit foster and adoptive families.

Media calls can be at any time from any media outlet (such as TV, newspapers, magazines, and radio), and often on very short notice. If you feel you have a story to share with the Coalition or the media, please complete the below form and return to:
